

NATURE ARTS CAMP:

a fun-filled experience for children ages 5-9 years old

Come explore nature trails along creeks and into the hills! Through games, stories, songs and art projects (using natural materials), we will nurture and enliven children's sense of wonder and fascination with nature.

The following nature awareness skills will be practiced:

- listen, look and smell closely
- walk softly
- quiet mind
- feel nature's touch
- love and appreciate nature

Location: Ananda Dhiira

Address : 19393 Sanctuary Rd, Penn Valley, CA 95946

Tel : 530-432-3618

Time & Dates:

Camp 1: 3:30-6:00pm May 26th-28th (Tuesday - Thursday)

Camp 2: 3:30-6:00pm on May 29th (Friday) and 9am-4pm on May 30th (Saturday)

Contact person for more information: Didi Ananda Lalita / Didi Shveta

Fee: $ 30 per camp

Get to know our Nature Guides:

Ruai Gregory, M.A., has taught Early Childhood Education courses for various colleges, most recently Blue Mountain Community College in Pendleton, Oregon. She has also worked for Head Start, Early Intervention and other Early Childhood programs for the last 30 years.

Forest Gregory, B.S., has worked as an elementary teacher, forester and artist. He and Ruai have run "Nature Arts Camp" on their property near the Willowa Mountains in northeastern Oregon every summer since 2001 for preschool-elementary aged children. In 2006 they attended the "Connecting Children With Nature" world forum at Arbor Day Farm and toured the Outdoor Classroom there